CRASHING THE BOYS' CLUB

a who's who of the menswear scene (and how they stack up against their women's counterparts)

It's our equal-opportunity moment: For the first time, Style.com is adding full menswear reviews and photos to our runway coverage. And because some of the faces on the men's side may be less familiar, here's a handy primer. We've rounded up the womenswear pros you know and love, and their guys'-side equivalents: for example, Anna Dello Russo : women :: Robert Rabensteiner : men. Study hard. The action starts with Raf Simons' Spring '11 Jil Sander menswear show in Florence tonight, and continues with the first full day of shows in Milan on Saturday.
